NUH Children's Urgent Care Clinic @ Bukit Panjang

Khoo Teck Puat – National University Children's Medical Institute

Care where it matters

The NUH Children's Urgent Care Clinic @ Bukit Panjang is a walk-in clinic in the community for children and adolescents up to 18 years old. It aims to provide acute care for minor injuries and ailments that are urgent but non-life-threatening. It is part of the Khoo Teck Puat – National University Children's Medical Institute at the National University Hospital (NUH).

Conveniently located within Junction 10 mall at Bukit Panjang, the clinic is open daily with extended hours including public holidays from 9am to 11pm (last registration at 9pm).

Registration may close earlier than stated if the clinic is experiencing a high volume of patients.

X-ray services are available daily at selected timings.

About the Khoo Teck Puat – National University Children's Medical Institute (KTP-NUCMI)

The KTP-NUCMI is the paediatric arm of the National University Hospital and comprises the Departments of Paediatrics, Paediatric Surgery and Neonatology. We provide comprehensive and specialised medical and surgical services for newborns, children and adolescents, and are the only public hospital in Singapore that offers paediatric kidney and liver transplant programmes. Through a generous gift from the Estate of Khoo Teck Puat, we have set up an integrated outpatient facility with medical, diagnostic and rehabilitation services.
