

National Medical Excellence Awards

National Clinical Excellence Team Award 2014

NATIONAL MEDICAL EXCELLENCE AWARDS 2014 Celebrating Excellence in Healthcare

The team comprising Associate Professor Malcolm Mahadevan (Head & Senior Consultant, Emergency Medicine Department), Dr Kuan Win Sen (Consultant, Emergency Medicine Department), Professor Lim Tow Keang (Senior Consultant, Division of Respiratory and Critical Care Medicine) and Dr Lim Hui Fang (Consultant, Division of Respiratory and Critical Care Medicine) is awarded the National Clinical Excellence Team Award 2014 for their outstanding contributions in improving hospital mortality rate and achieving significant cost savings for patients with severe community-acquired pneumonia.

National Clinical Excellence Team Award 2010

The team comprising Professor Lim Tow Keang (Senior Consultant, Division of Respiratory and Critical Care Medicine), Associate Professor Malcolm Mahadevan, (Head and Senior Consultant, Emergency Medicine Department), Dr Irwani Ibrahim (Consultant, Emergency Medicine Department) and Dr Jason Phua (Senior Consultant, Division of Respiratory and Critical Care Medicine), received the National Clinical Excellence Team Award 2010 for their outstanding contributions in effective clinical knowledge translation in the use of non-invasive ventilation for the treatment of chronic obstructive pulmonary disease in Singapore.